LOCAL MISCELLANY.

WANTED -Our files having been despoiled of copies of the Spirit of the 29th of May and 19th of June, we shall feel obliged to any of our patrons who will be kind enough to furnish us with a number or two of those

THE WEATHER .- Diatribes upon the condition of the weather, have occupied a large space in the city journals for the last ten days. It has been experienced by all, and demonstrated by many, to have been a continuation of the most intensely hot weather experienced for twenty years; and the range of the weather-guage, indeed, for some of the days, has no parallel in the last forty. The suffering and deaths in the large cities are without precedent, and confined to no class or calling. All out door business was suspended, whilst utter stagnation accompanied that within.— With a change of Moon however, on Thursday, the atmosphere cooled off, and Friday copious rains fell East, with the same Providential blessing to our own region on Saturday. The face of man and nature looks glad at the change, and how grateful should we feel that the "Giver of all Good sendeth the rains in due season, alike upon the just and

Anniversary -Saturday last, 21st inst., was the anniversary of the first battle of Manassas. Among the gallant soldiers present was our 2d Regiment, the pride and chivalry of our county, with hearts bouyant and banners proudly flaunting. Alas for human hopes and expectations! The flag they so devotedly loved and nobly cherished, is now torn, tattered and obliterated, but not dishonored, as the gallant blood so freely shed in | ious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means its defence, will fully testify. In this battle a number of the 2d Regiment were killed and wounded, but we have been unable to get a list as we had hoped. To the survivors we wish many a returning anniversary, with a country giving more hope as to its future des tiny, and a people living in more unity, harmony and brotherly love, than is its condition at the present time,

- "Who struck Billy Patterson," is some times provocation enough among our more bellicose for a regular "maul," but the temperature of the last week was a better antilote against such amusements than a police force. Peace men and fighting men were quiet as lambs if not as cool as cucumbers. but as the boys must have some diversion, it was arranged for a war of extermination, if needs be, between a huge rattle snake and three full grown rats, at close quarters. The fight came off on Saturday evening, and, as we learn, the conflict only lasted a few moments when the gamest rat of the three received a death blow from his snakeship, leaving his ceadjutors to make a truce as they best could. The snake in killing the first rat seems to have exhausted all his venomous strength, and both parties have been occupying the same box since, with no indications of a collision, but a wonderful glare of alarm and contempt one at the other. 'Whether Mr. Snake intends to "reconstruct" the other unfortunate rats that the chances of war have left in the same habitation, (as the present radical or rattle snake Congress, proposes to do with the recusant States,) simply swallow them in whole or by piece meal when he gets able, we must leave to further developments.

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we learn that the rats quietly bided their time until yesterday noon, and as the snake only gave evidence of a parley that he might more surely secure them in his coils, they rallied all their strength for the combat, and soon left his streaked hide as the only evidence of former prowess. How much some men in this day are like the snake; once extract their poison, and they may hiss but can't bite.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE. -The farm of Mr. Samuel Ridenour, containing 2851 acres, was sold on Tuesday last by the enterprising Real Estate Agents, Bowens & Luce, for the sum of $20,100-purchaser Mr. John H. Balsbaugh, of Pennsylvania.

The valuable property of Mr. John F. BLESSING in this town, consisting of his large Dwelling House, Store Room, Bakery Appurtenances, &c., has been also recently sold to Mr. GUSTAVE BROWN, of Martinsburg, for the sum of $5,550, cash-or its equivalent.

The farm of Col. J. W. ALLEN, deceased, near Summit Point, has been purchased by Mr. JOHN L. CRAIGHILL, for $33.20 per acre. It contained 224 acres.

FINE CIGARS .- Our thanks are due, and are most gratefully tendered to Mr. C. E. Beller, of the firm of Haines & Beller, Winchester, for a box of superior eigars, which have afforded us the finest smoking in which we have indulged since the commencement of the late war. These cigars are of the firm's own manufacture, and attest the excellent quality of the stock used by them. Mr. John S. Fasterday, at his restaurant, basement of the Spirit Building, will keep these eigars on hand, where those who want a good article to smoke can always obtain them.

LABOR SAVING .- By reference to advertisement, it will be seen that Mrs. M. K. DANIEL has the Agency of Virginia for the sale of Portable Sewing Machines, at a price so low as to place it within the means of every family to secure one. It is exceedingly simple in construction, lasting and durable in quality and can be learned to work upon in an hour. Where it has been tried, we are assured that universal satisfaction has resulted, and all in want of so needful an article are requested to call at her residence and test its efficiency.

FLY CATCHERS .- Several of our business places have been very handsomely ornamented the last week, by the hanging to the ceilings and decorating the walls, with tissue paper of all imaginable color and figures. Mr. Van Worth of Winchester is the artist, and he has proven himself an adept in his profession, as we have never seen similar work more handsomely executed.

Pic-Nic .- One of those agreeable and now fashionable entertainments, will come off at the Island on the Potomac near Harper's Ferry, on Thursday next. Ladies and gentlemen of the county are invited to be present, as every arrangement has been made by the managers to make it a most pleasant occasion to those who may participate.

CELEBRATION .- The Sabbath School of the E. M. Church of this town will hold a Celebration in the woods of Mr. Cooke near this place, on Thursday week, 2d of August. The managers of this School always make an interesting and agreeable affair of such occa-

- Rev. ROBERT WHITE, well known to many of our citizens as a former Pastor of the Romney Church-now a resident of Alabathis town on Sabbath morning and evening

A RARE CHANCE.-Those wishing instruction in vocal or instrumental Music have new an opportunity of securing the services of Professor ALBERT D. REED, whe is now in our town, and will remain for a few months. Mr. R. is an accomplished teacher and worthy young gentleman, a native of our own town, and eminently deserving of a large class in the community.

-By reference to advertisement it will be seen that Mr. J. R. Avis has confided the control of his business for a few months to his father, leaving with him a stock on hand more choice, varied and inviting than he has ever heretofore offered the public. In the admixture of condiments, spiritual or otherwise, the Captain is so well known as a proficient, that the peculiar inclination or taste need but be indicated, in order to be grati-

- To Messrs. TRUSSELL & Co. are we under obligations for a supply of fresh and choice Sardines, real dairy Cheese, and Mason's best Crackers, as a lunch when we are unable to raise a dinner. Their new and judiciously selected stock of goods is fully set forth through our advertising columns; but will appear to much greater advantage by personal examination.

- Lt. Gen. R. S. EWELL, of the late Confederate army, with his family, passed through our town on Saturday, en route to Capon Springs. The old veteran begins to show the ravages of time, and his health is very feeble.
